

Creative Writing Workshop's Survey

Please fill out this survey the best that you can by being as honest and specific as possible. Your feedback on this survey determines if Writers in Residence will continue and if WIR should change the creative writing works and prompts, student volunteers, and methods.

Juvenile Detention Center: _____ Date: _____

1. What did you first think of the creative writing workshop? How did you feel about participating?
2. What is your final impression of the creative writing workshop? What has changed from the beginning to the end of this entire creative writing workshop experience?
3. Did you have any expectations before the creative writing workshop? If so, what were they? Has the creative writing workshop met those expectations or fallen short?
4. Have you benefited from the creative writing workshops, and if so, how?
5. Which author's work did you like the most? Why?

6. In your own words, how would you describe WIR?

7. What would you change about the creative writing workshops?

8. Before the creative writing workshops, were you interested in reading and writing? Do you read or write more or less as much as you did before you participated in the creative writing workshops?

9. Has participating in the creative writing workshops helped you to reflect on your life, if so, how?

10. Has the creative writing workshops helped you develop as a writer? Has your creativity been challenged, and if so, how?